The First Five Minutes Matter

PREPARATION WORKSHEET

Same scripture. Same truth. Different experience.

1 PONDER SOMEONE I'VE BEEN CALLED TO TEACH

Think about someone in your class. It might be:

- Someone who rarely participates
- Someone who is struggling
- Someone you simply want to reach more effectively

I am preparing this opening with this person (or people) in mind:

_____

_____

_____

2 IDENTIFY A GOSPEL TRUTH

Think about your next lesson, whatever age group or material you're teaching. Choose a gospel truth from that lesson.

The gospel truth I want to invite them to discover:

_____

_____

_____

3 PLAN MY OPENING

Use the following questions to help you prepare an opening that invites meaningful learning.

KNOW

What do I want them to know?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

FEEL

What do I hope they feel?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

DO

What could I invite them to do?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

CHRIST

How can I teach this as the Savior would?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

4 MY FIRST FIVE MINUTES

Write the actual words you might use to begin your lesson. It doesn't need to be elaborate. It simply needs to invite those you teach into meaningful gospel learning.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

5 ONE FINAL IMPROVEMENT

After our discussion, what is one thing you could change that might help the person you're thinking about come closer to Jesus Christ?

_____

_____